PORTER&Co

When you enter a Porter & Co home, you are immediately struck by the uncompromising quality that has been the company's hallmark for a quarter of a century.

BILL PORTER

Bill Porter has a passion for precision and attention to detail that is clearly evident in everything he builds. Beautifully proportioned and combining the charm of period styling with today's technology, his developments exude quality. His personal stamp is on everything from design to handover and he spends hour after hour on site ensuring his homes are consistently excellent.

Bill has an excellent team and his multi-award winning site managers including his brother Jim Porter, Alan Lynas and Peter Corry are supported by numerous craftsmen who have been with the company for many years.

Photographs included in this brochure are merely indicative of the standard of finish that can be attained in such a prestigious development, they should not be taken as factual representation of any individual home.

AWARD WINNING

The integrity of Porter & Co homes is well recognised in Northern Ireland but recognition from the trade in the form of regional NHBC awards is a significant endorsement.

Porter & Co site managers have won the regional award for Northern Ireland and Isle of Man five years in a row, adding to the numerous NHBC accolades the company has been consistently winning for over 25 years.

Awarded for exceptional standards of build onsite, these impressive industry accolades are a solid reason to trust in the expertise of Bill and his team.

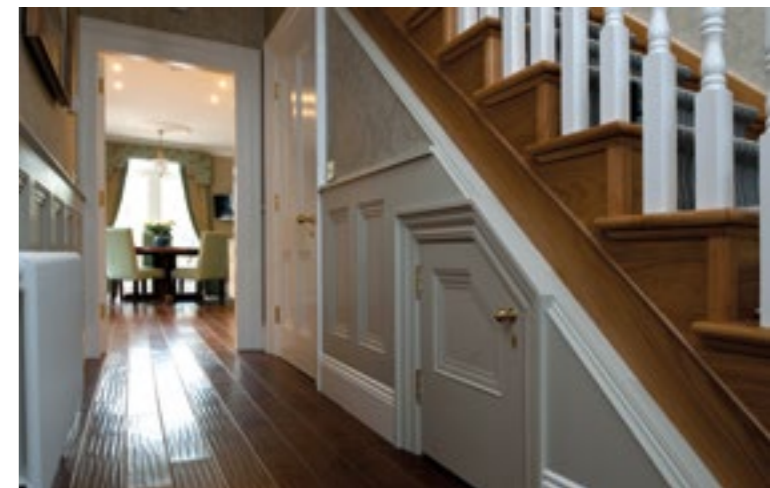

GEORGIAN STYLING

The Hunter's Chase concept is inspired by the classic Georgian village theme, with 9 beautifully appointed detached dwellings.

Elegantly sited on generous plots, these handsome properties give a luxurious ambience to this exclusive development.

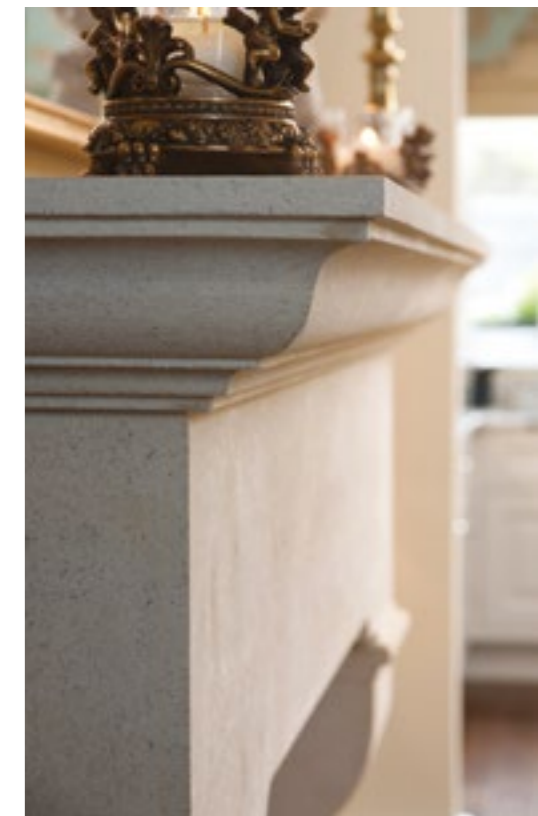

The railings, street lights and period detailing of these exquisite homes have made Hunter's Chase look established from its beginnings.

FINISHING TOUCHES

With solid floors on every level to reduce noise and traditional looking rumbled bricks, plus a polite distance between each home, every development more than meets Bill Porter's high standards.

Every home comes with the choice of a number of period details which together add up to a home full of character and charm.

The Town of DROMORE

The town of Dromore is set in the drumlins of the Lagan Valley, an area of distinguished character and charm, in the heart of the countryside, at the foot of the scenic Mournes.

Although a tranquil location, it has easy access to the A1 dual carriageway and M1 motorway with attractions such as Hillsborough, Sprucefield, The Outlet Banbridge and the cities of Newry, Lisburn and Belfast.
